

Proclamation

Presented to

Lawrence K.W. Tseu

WHEREAS, Dr. Lawrence K.W. Tseu, son of Joseph and Lillian Tseu, was born in Hong Kong and grew up with strong family values such as courage, determination, respect, responsibility, perseverance, and equality; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Lawrence K.W. Tseu worked diligently to put his way through St. Louis High School, was a graduate of the Class of 1951; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Lawrence K.W. Tseu served in the Air Force for five years, using a GI Bill to obtain his BS from Brigham Young University, and a DDS from Northwestern University in 1962; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Lawrence K.W. Tseu completed over 47 years as a practicing dentist, and currently serves as a board member for many organizations, and also supports a wide variety of charities in fields such as education, and culture and the arts; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Lawrence K.W. Tseu and his late wife, BoHing Chan Tseu raised six children who have followed their father's example of achieving excellence, and are devoted to serving their community as medical doctors and dentists, and as an attorney and dental hygienist (also a educator); and

WHEREAS, Dr. Lawrence K.W. Tseu has stated that "My main goal is to help with education" and he has made it his mission to create opportunities for hardworking students;

WHEREAS, Dr. Lawrence K.W. Tseu commitment to community service embodies Maryknoll School's motto, Noblesse Oblige ("to who much is given, much is expected");

THEREFORE I, NEIL ABERCROMBIE, Governor, and I, BRIAN SCHATZ, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim March 5, 2011 as

"DR. LAWRENCE K.W. TSEU DAY"

and ask citizens to join us and everyone at Maryknoll School in recognizing Dr. Tseu for his many accomplishments, generosity and dedication to helping others.

DONE at the State Capitol, in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this second day of March, 2011.

NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor, State of Hawai'i

BRIAN SCHATZ
Lt. Governor, State of Hawai'i